

Casual Volunteer

Role Description

Time commitment - as and when required

A good volunteer team is where everyone has a role and pitches in to help, even if they can only volunteer their time on the odd occasion. During events and other activities, lots of help is needed and helpful people are really important during this time. If you don't have much time to spare, or you're less confident in one of the more formal roles, you can really help Dumfries and Galloway LGBT Plus by becoming one of our casual volunteers.

We are particularly looking for: □

- Casual fundraisers including can-rattlers, raffle prize collectors and backpackers etc. □
- Casual events volunteers to help out at various community events □
- Casual outreach workers to help distribute flyers and other publicity materials □
- Other casual roles such as drivers, cake-bakers as well as people to be 'on call' when we need you

Ideally, you will have many of the qualities below: □

- Committed to Dumfries and Galloway LGBT Plus □
- Enthusiastic, sociable and motivated □
- Good at following instructions □
- A good communicator □
- Reliable and trustworthy □
- Calm under pressure

What you will do: □

- Work with other volunteers to help deliver our activities, particularly fundraising, community and social events, on an ad hoc basis

What you will get out of it:

Despite having limited time, you will have the chance to work hard on the odd occasion with very motivated teams of volunteers and feel the buzz when everyone pulls together towards a common cause. Your work will provide a solid foundation of support to the other Dumfries and Galloway LGBT Plus volunteers and will help us soar to success!
